Meeting was called to order by President Vieau, City Clerk Rattell read the call to the meeting. President Vieau turned the meeting over to Attorney Moriarty and Attorney Albano. Attorney Albano explained the DiRico case has ended. The case was handled internally. The DiRico case was tried, the former Golf Pro claimed there were monies owed, made a claim under the wage act. Case was settled in 2016. The city won the current case. Councilor Balakier asked if there was any chance on appeal? Attorney Albano stated it is finished, had 30 days to appeal and the time has lapsed. No appeal was filed. Councilor McAuliffe made a motion to enter into executive session without returning to the meeting. Motion passed through all stages by a unanimous roll call vote.
